

12 March 2019

Dear Parent/Carer

We would like to highlight to you the opportunity to see a National Theatre production of 'An Inspector Calls' which is one of our GCSE set texts. The production is on at the Birmingham Repertory Theatre, running from 12-16 November 2019. The chance to see the play live on stage is invaluable and we would encourage you to book tickets. We had hoped to take the year groups during school time, but the tickets for the daytime shows sold incredibly quickly due to the popularity of this production.

Yours faithfully

Mrs T Peters
